

KEEP 'EM FLYING WARBIRDS

JULY 2005

VOL. 28, NO. 5

contents

Filming the movie Catch-22 probably preserved the majority of the B-25s on the warbird circuit today. Jack Bevin, a pilot during the filming, relates his adventures during filming beginning on page 12.

in this issue

5 Report From the Second Annual Convention of the Aircraft Engine Historical Society

by Larry Rinek

6 Warbirds Judging: How it Works

by Dick Phillips

12 Filming Catch-22

A pilot's perspective
by Jack E. Bivin

20 Embry-Riddle Senior Takes Over T-34 Family Tradition

by Kim Rosenlof

26 2005 Flying Legends Air Show

Warbirds in the skies over Duxford, England
by Mark C. Howard

32 'Planes of Fame' Warbird Show at Chino

Gathering of Thunderbolts Headlines Show
by Mark C. Howard

columns

3 Mail Call

4 Warbird News

10 The Way It Was

by Robert F. Dorr

45 Supply Depot

46 Mystery Warbird

by Mark Laatsch

48 Calendar of Events

Front Cover

Scott Yoak puts his T-34 through its paces for the lens of Paul Bowen at EAA AirVenture 2004. For a complete profile of this award-winning Mentor, turn to page 20.

Back Cover

Team Red Warbirds at the Leeward Fly-Out during Sun 'n Fun. Rodger "Deno" Modglin, flying the Gray Wolf, passed away on July 24, 2005.