

KEEP 'EM FLYING WARBIRDS

DECEMBER 2005

VOL. 28, NO. 8

contents

T-28s represented a large number of Navy Heavy Iron on the Warbird ramp at AirVenture 2005. For more shots of Navy Heavy Iron at Oshkosh, turn to page 30.

NICK VERONICO

in this issue

12 A Dragon's Farewell

Austria retired its Draken fleet in October 2005
by Captain Vince Moore

18 Upupa Epops You Say?

World War II ace reunited with Mustang at AirVenture 2005
by Jim Dunn

20 Ryan PT-22 Recruit

by Paul Koskela

30 Navy Heavy Iron

From Mitchells to Bent Wing Birds and a trio of Bearcats, Navy warbirds turned out in big numbers
by Nick Veronico

38 Polar Bear Goes Air Racing

Rare North America 'A' model Mustang turns the pylons
by Karen Morss

columns

- | | | | |
|----|--|----|---|
| 2 | Director's Update | 44 | Mystery Warbird
by Mark Laatsch |
| 3 | Mail Call | 47 | Supply Depot |
| 5 | Warbird News | 48 | Calendar of Events |
| 10 | The Way It Was
by Robert F. Dorr | | |

Front Cover

Tom Wood, Howard Pardue, and Ray Diekman in their Grumman F8F Bearcats represent some of the Navy Heavy Iron at EAA AirVenture Oshkosh 2005. Photo Paul Bowen

Back Cover

Tom Wood formates his F8F-1 BuNo. 122095, over Lake Winnebago for Paul Bowen's lenses.